about our company

Fox Bookkeeping & Consulting can provide your small business with an affordable, customized solution to bookkeeping and accounting support.

During our twelve years of experience in accounting and business management, we noticed a growing demand for affordable, qualified bookkeeping for the small business community — to provide daily, weekly or monthly support.

small business services

Are you able to prepare realistic cash flow reports and income statements? Need help setting up or maintaining your business records?

Allow Fox Bookkeeping & Consulting to prepare your budget, to help with cash flow projections, or to input your transactions — for much easier and more effective management of your business. How much is your time worth? Let us help you concentrate on increasing the size of your business and leave the time-consuming bookkeeping process to us.

accounting firm support services

Take the pressure off your staff by easing their regular workload — especially when the busy times of the year roll around.

Please call us if you have employees that require additional training — or, if you are temporarily understaffed due to an expanded client base or an increase in projects.
